

Human Resources

The Human Resources Agency consists of administration, benefits, employee relations, staffing services, risk management/safety, and full-service human resources support to the Ontario International Airport. Ontario's Human Resources Agency provides leadership in developing effective relationships and meaningful communications between employees, the City, and the community we serve.

39 years

Median Age of a City Employee

16,404

Number of total applications received in the last 12 months

135 Recruitments opened in the last 12 months

Firefighter

Position with most number of applicants

863 within 5 days

151

People hired in the last 12 months

Some recruitments can have multiple open positions, resulting in more than one person hired.*

7 years 3 months

Median tenure of a City Employee

36 years 3 months

Current longest tenure of a City Employee

Three most common HR Questions...

What positions do you have open, and how can I apply?

What's the status of my application?

How can I make a change to my benefits?

The City is always seeking new talent! To learn more about available positions or just about the City of Ontario's HR Agency, visit www.ontarioca.gov/human-resources.