303 East B Street, Ontario, California 91764 Phone: 909.395.2036 / Fax: 909.395.2420

Dear Applicant:

In an effort to improve customer service and ensure development projects are processed as quickly as possible, the Planning Department finds it necessary to remind its clients that complete application submittals are crucial to the plan review process. In the past, accepting incomplete applications has led to errors and time delays at the end of the review process. I do not want this to happen to you.

Consequently, the Planning Department staff will only accept complete applications at time of submittal. All items requested by this application packet must be provided before the Planning Department counter staff can accept your application for filing. Please review all minimum requirements prior to submitting your application, as counter staff do not have the authority to waive any requirements.

Please remember that failure to provide all of the required plans and information will result in significant time delays in the processing of your application. If you have any questions regarding the necessity of any particular item required by this application packet, please feel free to contact the Planning Department counter supervisor to discuss your questions.

The Planning Department looks forward to a continued efficient and professional relationship with you in the future. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns regarding this matter, please feel free to contact the Planning Department at (909) 395-2036.

Respectfully,

Rudy Zeledon
Planning Director

Homeowner Variance Application Form— Minimum Filing Requirements

303 East B Street, Ontario, California 91764 Phone: 909.395.2036 / Fax: 909.395.2420

WHAT IS A HOMEOWNER VARIANCE?

The purpose of the Variance is to allow for departures from the numerical development standards established by the Development Code, to provide for the resolution of practical difficulties, unnecessary physical hardships, or results inconsistent with the general purpose of the Development Code regulations, which result from the size, shape, topography, location, or surroundings of a property, thereby depriving the property development rights possessed by other properties in the vicinity, and in the same zoning district. Such difficulties or hardships may relate to geographic, topographic, or other physical conditions on the project site or in the immediate area, which result from the proposed construction of, or additions to, single family homes. Homeowner Variances may be approved by the Zoning Administrator if the foregoing conditions deprive the owner of the property of substantially the same use and enjoyment of the property as that of other properties in the area.

Variances may only be granted by the Zoning Administrator with respect to minimum and/or maximum dimensions, area (size), mass, and quantity, and includes, but is not limited to, the following development standards: lot size, coverage, and dimensions; building setbacks, separations, height, and projections into setback areas; and landscape coverage and dimensions. A Variance cannot be granted for increases in maximum density or floor area ratio.

A Variance cannot be used to authorize a use or activity that is not otherwise expressly authorized by the zoning

MINIMUM FILING REQUIREMENTS

The minimum requirements for filing a Homeowner Variance application are listed below. An application that does not include the following plans and information will not be accepted for processing:

- Completed Homeowner Variance Application and filing fees.
- Fourteen (14) complete sets of plans, including a site plan and floor plans. Each set shall be stapled together as a single package and folded to 8½"X11".

The application will be denied if one or more of the below-listed statements cannot be clearly established.

(1) The strict or literal interpretation and enforcement of the specified regulation would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary physical hardship inconsistent with the objectives of the development regulations contained in this Development Code;

(2) There are exceptional or extraordinary circumstances or conditions applicable to the property involved, or to the intended use of the property, that do not apply generally to other properties in the vicinity and in the same zoning district;

(3) The strict or literal interpretation and enforcement of the specified regulation would deprive the applicant of privileges enjoyed by the owners of other properties in the same zoning district;

(4) The granting of the Variance will not be detrimental to the public health, safety or welfare, or be materially injurious to properties or improvements in the vicinity; and

(5) The proposed Variance is consistent with the goals, policies, plans and exhibits of the Vision, Policy Plan (General Plan), and City Council Priorities components of The Ontario Plan, and the purposes of any applicable specific plan or planned unit development, and the purposes of this Development Code.
